CROWE, sept13-2w

Mr. Coy For County Judge.
Sixteen out of twenty county commissioners assembled at the Court House yesterday to select a Democratic candidate for County Judge in opposition to E. C. Million, ex-Democrat, nominee of the Republicans. After the withdrawal of Judge Turpin, the sixteen gentlemen were unanimous for Mr. Napoleon R. Coy, of Kirksville. This selection is considered the best possible for the success of Democracy, and the safety and dignity of the county. The remarks heard yesterday were as a unit in endorsement of Mr. Coy's candidacy, and it is settled he will win by 400.

Prof. Groselove's Narrow Escape.
Prof. Groselove, of Central University, nearly lost his life at Jackson last week, so says the Hustler.

—He was superintending the hauling of baggage belonging to students of the Institute, and the wagon body, in which he was seated, as the teamster was making a sharp turn, upset and was pitched on the horse's back, throwing the young professor between the horses on the wagon tongue. The horses kicked furiously. Professor Groselove caught hold of the tongue and pulled himself towards the horse's head and got out unharmed but a very frightened man. His escape from instant death, as was also that of the teamster, was very narrow. The accident created great excitement at the depot.

A WONDERFUL CURE OF DIARRHOEA
A prominent Virginia Editor had almost given up, but was brought back to perfect health by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

READ HIS EDITORIAL.
Hillsdale, Va. Times
I suffered with diarrhoea for a long time and thought I was past being cured. I had spent much time and money and suffered so much misery that I had almost decided to give up all hopes of recovery and await the result, but noting the advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and also some testimonials stating how some wonderful cures had been wrought by the remedy, I decided to try it. After taking a few doses I was entirely well of that trouble, and I wish to say further to my readers and fellow-sufferers that I am a hale and hearty man to-day and feel as well as I ever did in my life.
